

NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

One of the most often repeated statements we heard at the picnic the other night honoring Dr. Smith and his family was, "why don't we do this every year." We think that this would be a great idea.

It appeared to us that everybody had a good time just getting together and visiting with one another. Since the picnic was originally planned just to close out the summer recreational program maybe this would be enough reason to have a picnic every year.

Of course, the big question is whether or not very many of you would have gone to the trouble to show up if it were not for the fact that we were honoring Dr. Smith.

We were glad to learn last week that the Fort Worth and Denver Railroad is trying to purchase the Texas Central Railroad line running from Stamford to Rotan. It is our understanding that if the Texas Central cannot sell the line to the Fort Worth and Denver or to someone else they will just shut it down.

Hamlin and especially Rotan need this line and we hope that it will work out so that the line will remain in operation. Since the line ties in with the Fort Worth and Denver line from Abilene to Wichita Falls, it would seem that this railroad should be better able to make this short line work than anyone else could.

All you parents who have spent years trying to raise your kids in the best way you know how will likely be just a little bit disturbed by the following quote taken from Congressman Omar Burleson's newsletter this week.

Dr. Reginald Lourie, president of the Commission on the Mental Health of Children, in testifying before a Senate Committee said, "there is serious thinking among child researchers that we cannot trust the family alone to prepare young people for this new kind of world — not only are parents unnecessary, but they are too inept to rear their own children."

Now how does that grab you?

If our memory serves us right, we believe that this good doctor would have fit right in with Hitler and his goal of a super race.

As Burleson points out in his column, "The 'standardizing' of children has historically been the practice of totalitarian countries. Probably Communist China has the most far-reaching of any in modern times. Political and social direction are the principle motives. This sort of regimentation just does not represent the American family life which has been the mainstay of the moral fiber of our Nation.

And don't just think that this is just one more crank speaking out in this country because the bill the doctor is supporting has already passed the Senate and will soon come before the House.

The Bill is entitled "The Comprehensive Headstart, Child Development and Family Services Act of 1972." In December of last year the Congress passed a similar measure as an amendment to the Economic Opportunity Act which was vetoed by the President.

As Burleson points out, "Child Development should not be confused with Day Care which provides facilities for children of working mothers.

The bill passed by the Senate is more than Child Care. As described by the advocates it is "an activist's program intent upon perfecting the child's early environment."

It seems to be the assumption of Dr. Lourie and others that an institution, run by an impersonalized staff, can substitute for parental love and care.

As you can see, if these people have their way there will be no need for parents just as soon as the scientists can come up with test-tube children. But, then what do you need the children for?

People Fill Park to Pay Tribute to Dr. M. L. Smith

The City-wide picnic honoring Dr. M. L. Smith and his family was termed a big success as City Park was filled Thursday evening with people of all ages who came to pay tribute to him for his outstanding services to the community.

Charles Reed, president of the Board of Community Development, was master of ceremonies. Rev. Howard Jones, pastor of First Baptist Church gave the invocation.

Joe E. Ford, Hamlin's mayor, paid special tribute to Dr. Smith for his unselfish service to the community through the years and expressed gratitude to him for his decision to remain in Hamlin.

Reed presented gifts from the community to Dr. and Mrs. Smith and to Dr. Smith's mother, Mrs. Faye Smith.

In appreciation for their valued contributions to the community, the Smiths were given a silver punch bowl with 12 goblets, ladle and tray.

Another gift was a scrapbook filled with signatures signed to a petition headed "To Dr. M. L. Smith and Family: We, the people of Hamlin and surrounding area, express our sincere appreciation for the personal concern you have shown and for the personal sacrifices you have made in order to provide medical service to the citizens of this community." The signed proclamation made by Mayor Ford proclaiming July 29 as Dr. M. L. Smith Day, and press clippings were also included in the book.

Dr. Smith's wife was presented with yellow roses and his mother was given a bouquet of red carnations.

In presenting Dr. Smith with a gift of hunting pants and jacket, Reed expressed that it is the hope of everyone that the search for other doctors for Hamlin will be successful in time for him to get to enjoy some hunting when the season opens.

Mrs. Donald (Patti) Young recited a poem that she had written especially for the occasion. Through her verses she pointed out the doctor's faithful service to the community, his being widely known for his ability and skill, the contributions made by his sons, and the support patience and encouragement of his wife, Dorothy. She also expressed admiration for his integrity, spirit and sacrifices.

Two of the Smith's sons were here for the picnic. Gary is in Hamlin for the summer and Mike came from Texas A & M. Their oldest son, Mark, who is working on his doctorate in anatomy at Texas Medical School in Galveston, was unable to attend but his wife, Ann, flew in Wednesday evening.

Entertainment was a play presented by a group of children from the summer recreation program, under the direction of Patti Murphree. Miss Murphree, student at West Texas State University at Canyon, was director of the summer program sponsored by the BCD. She was introduced by Luther Haight, chairman of the BCD committee. He explained the program which was initiated this year as a BCD project.

Much work is being done on Hamlin Gins, the owners putting all the plants up in first class condition and adding new and modern machinery, which will assure the cotton producer the very best turn out and sample that can be had anywhere.

Neinda Philosopher Wonders If Scientists Are Running Out of Something to Do

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One takes a jaundiced view of science this week. Maybe his water pump broke down.

Dear editar:
According to an article I read in a newspaper last night space scientists are going to launch a satellite next year that'll circle the earth every 18 days and supply man through photographs with some of the following information:

(1) Where new highways should be built.

(2) When a farmer should plow his land.

(3) How much pollution is flowing into the country's rivers and lakes.

This is startling news. I had no idea the highways planners had run out of places to pave over and are being forced to call on a satellite to discover new spots.

As for farmers needing somebody to tell them when to plow, maybe a few bachelor farmers are in that shape, but not the rest.

And as for sending a satellite up to send photographs back down to tell us how much pollution is flowing into a river or lake, this seems like going to a lot of trouble to tell us what we already know. It's like taking a poll to find out who won an election 10 years ago.

You suppose science is running out of something to do? Why just last week I read that Russian scientists have now perfected an instrument that can measure the temperature of a burning match from more than 6,000 miles away.

I don't know who they sent 6,000 miles away to strike that match or how they could tell they were focusing on that particular one, it could have been a cigarette lighter in Hamlin or the pilot light in somebody's water heater, but even if they got the right one,

REACHING NEW Heights

Man has explored most of the earth, and has now set out to conquer space.

While achieving these marvelous works, let us not forget our creator.

"When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; what is man that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet..."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Neinda Philosopher Comes Up With Plan to End Long Drawn-Out Trials

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One tackles a legal problem this week, more or less.

Dear editor:

Over the years and several times lately I've read about lawyers arguing that their clients couldn't get a fair trial in their home towns because too much publicity had been given their crimes. Too many people know about the matter and a change of venue is required to get a fair and impartial jury, the lawyers say.

What they mean is that justice requires that their client be tried before 12 people who've never heard of the murder or the stealing or the defrauding or whatever it was he did. With or without a change of venue, sometimes it takes two or three months and thousands and thousands of dollars just to pick 12 people considered uninformed enough to serve.

I have figured out a way to avoid all this. What we need is a stable of people specially selected and sheltered to serve as jurors. It'd be their lifetime's work.

To make sure they meet the court's requirements, that is, that they are totally ignorant of what's going on, the professional jurors would be prohibited from reading any newspaper that isn't at least five years old. No television of course would be permitted, because even on soap operas or football games the networks have a prejudicial, jury-destroying habit of interrupting a program to report news bulletins. They'd have to get their entertainment from phonograph records, checkers and dominoes. No chess. What sort of juror do you think Bobby Fischer would make? What an affront it'd be to the dignity of the court to have each juror hauling in his own chair and adjusting all the lights in the courtroom.

Under this system, when a trial begins, the judge pushes a button and 12 people come sliding out of a chute, their eyes blinded by the glare but their minds absolutely uncluttered. It would then be up to the lawyers on both sides to unroll the facts and implant whatever prejudices they can manage, ten minutes after the trial starts. No use taking weeks and hunting all over the county to find 12 people who never heard of you when you've got 12 already stored away in the courthouse.

Of course another way to handle the problem would be to abolish all newspapers and radio and television stations, but I won't go into that. I'm probably already in contempt of court as it is.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

AUSTIN — Gov. Preston Smith is threatening a special legislative session on insurance reform.

In a statewide, televised speech, he announced he will ask the Legislature to abolish the paid, three-member State Insurance Board, which he charges is company dominated.

Angered by Senate rejection July 7 of his longtime friend, Larry Teaver, to the Board, Smith blamed the defeat on the "powerful insurance lobby."

His recommendations to "completely reorganize and reform the regulation of the insurance industry" will be delivered to a special session this year or to the next regular session in January.

Reaction to his speech, the Governor said, will determine whether he goes through with the special session call. He feels reorganization of the Board can be achieved only in a limited special session, but he isn't sure whether the public yet supports reform strongly enough to insure action.

Dallas Sen. Oscar Mauzy, a leader in the move to reject Teaver, challenged Smith to follow through and call the session immediately. He said he opposed Teaver, not because he was a consumer advocate on the Board, but for "lack of character and ability."

Smith in his tv speech announced 19 vetoes of items totalling $6.35 million from the 1973 appropriations bill.

Among the vetoed items: funds to acquire facilities for an A & I University center at Corpus Christi; a legislative scheme to thwart construction of a new highway building near the capitol by forcing creation of a state "garden park" on the site; $1 million for a Fort Worth state school and $1.22 million for new branch junior college in Coleman, Lubbock, Haskell and Palestine.

$200 MILLION TAX NEED SEEN — The House Revenue and Taxation Committee received advice the Legislature may be looking at a $200 million money shortage for the next biennium when it reports next year.

James McGrew, Texas Research League director, told the Committee spending from general revenue and other key state funds will jump $700 million over the present level next biennium. But he figured an additional $375 to $400 million in revenue is anticipated from present "growth" taxes, and a $100 million federal welfare windfall is foreseeable.

The Committee also was reminded repeatedly of the likely effect of a federal court decision (now on appeal) holding the present method of financing public schools by ad valorem taxation unconstitutional. And a University of Texas official suggested property, income and sales taxes are all necessary to get "maximum equity" in the tax system.

Governor Smith strongly disagreed with McGrew's forecast and said there is a strong possibility no new taxes at all will be needed next year.

COURTS SPEAK — The Supreme Court reconsidered and agreed to hear arguments next October in a controversy in which the wife of a Wichita Falls doctor was granted a divorce settlement which included a $40,000 community property right in his medical practice.

In other cases, the High Court concluded:

A city can cut off water service for failure of residents to pay a garbage collection fee.

Child support payments should be lowered for a once-wealthy father who lost his money on the stock market.

The Court of Criminal Appeals said criminal trials should be interrupted when it becomes apparent a defendant is mentally incompetent. The same Court said prosecutors have a right to question defendants about alleged threats to witnesses.

Farmers Now Receiving
Farm Set-Aside Payments

Approximately 95 percent of the farmers in Jones County have received farm set-aside program payments totaling $5,378,000 during July, according to R. B. Rowland, County Executive Director for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS).

Nationwide, approximately 750,000 cotton, feed grain and wheat producers were mailed a total of $850 million in expedited preliminary payments.

Payments under the set-aside programs are made to farmers who agree to set-aside part of their land from production in order to meet a national objective of balancing supply and demand in certain commodities. These payments help to off-set the loss of returns from cropland that otherwise would be used for income-yielding production, and on which the farmer is obliged to continue to pay taxes and apply needed conservation steps, according to officials of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Payments to producers are limited to $55,000 per person for each of three crops - feed grain, wheat and cotton under the Agricultural Act of 1970.

A statewide food stamp program for the needy will be put into effect this year, with stamps purchased at post office windows.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Money over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Money and Cheryl, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Money, James, Carol and Donny of Monahans. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Money and Patricia of Odessa and Vicki and Ricki Money of Lovington, N. M.
